PECG Thanks Outgoing Caltrans Director Randy Iwasaki for his Dedication and Service

SACRAMENTO – The Professional Engineers in California Government (PECG) released the following statement after the announcement that Caltrans Director Randy Iwasaki will be leaving the department.

“We enjoyed working with Randy Iwasaki during his time as head of Caltrans. His efforts allowed the department to continue to deliver critical state infrastructure projects to the public on-time and within budget,” said Shabbir Ahmed, President of the Professional Engineers in California Government. “We wish Randy the best of luck in his future endeavors.”

“We look forward to working with the next Caltrans Director to ensure the state’s highway system remains a safe and reliable method of transportation for the people of California,” said Ahmed.

ABOUT PECG

PECG represents the 13,000 state-employed engineers and related professionals responsible for designing and inspecting California’s highways and bridges, ensuring that schools and hospitals are safe during earthquakes, and protecting our air, water and beaches from polluters.
